Standing Order No. 12/2017

Sub:- Procedure to be followed in respect of objections raised in the DPD/RMS facilitation centre – Reg.

Attention of all the staff members is invited to various measures taken for facilitation of trade and for reduction of cost to the importer in the spirit of 'Ease of doing Business' and to reduce dwell time in clearance of the imported consignments.

2. It is reiterated that purpose of the DPD/RMS facilitation centre is to facilitate the import of goods in the manner so as to achieve the above mentioned objective. However, in cases, involving objections having revenue implications, as a measure to ensure faster clearances, it has been decided that following procedure will be followed:

- a. All the objections raised in the DPD/RMS facilitation centre will be put up to the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of DPD/RMS facilitation centre on the same day.
- b. Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of DPD/RMS facilitation centre will decide on the same day whether examination of the goods in question is required before clearance or otherwise, for the objection raised.
- c. If the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of DPD/RMS facilitation centre decides that examination of the goods is not required for the objection raised, the Bill of entry in question will be forwarded to the PCA section for further action and out of charge will be given without waiting of outcome of the objection raised.
- d. If the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of DPD/RMS facilitation centre decides that examination of the goods is required for the objection raised, the Bill of entry in question will be forwarded to the concerned Group for further action on the same day.

3. The Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of DPD/RMS facilitation centre will put up a daily report of the objections raised and outcome thereof to the Additional Commissioner of Customs, DPD/RMS facilitation centre.

4. This will not only help in timely disposal of objection raised in the DPD/RMS facilitation centre but also will reduce the dwell time substantially.

5. This procedure will be implemented with immediate effect and difficulties, if any, faced in implementation of this procedure may be brought to the notice of the undersigned.
